NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Wednesday, September 26, 2012:

MINUTE entry before Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman: In its order of 8/02/2012, the court dismissed plaintiff's complaint, but allowed him to seek leave to file a complaint that made allegations that were legally sufficient under constitutional and defamation principles. The complaint that plaintiff now seeks leave to file alleges with more detail the recklessness of defendants' publications regarding his financial status. However, as the court has observed, the malice required to establish liability for defamation of a public figure such as famed and well-respected athlete Scottie Pippen is greater than the mere failure to investigate, no matter how allegedly egregious that failure may be. The court concludes that plaintiff's proposed amended complaint cannot be considered a sufficient allegation of defamation against a public figure. Plaintiff's motion [116] for leave to file that amended complaint is accordingly denied, and this action is dismissed with prejudice. Plaintiff's motion for partial summary judgment [53] is denied. Civil case terminated. Mailed notice(rth, )
